April 21, 1943.

Miss Effa Manley,
71 Crawford Street,
Newark, New Jersey.

Dear Miss Manley:

Thank you very much for your kind invitation of April fifteenth to the opening game of the National Negro League at Ruppert Stadium on Sunday, May sixteenth.

I would very much like to with you on that occasion because of my interest in baseball, and particularly because of it being a League within my own State.

I don't know at this particular time whether or not I can be with you, but I can assure you I will make every effort to do so.

Thanks for writing me as you did and with kind regards, I am,

Sincerely,

AWH:L:B
